LEAGUE HAS MANY HARD PROBLEMS IN ITS AGENDA

Germany May Not Add To Troubles By Asking Admission

CZECHS ASK SEAT

China And Other Slated To Be Replaced By Other Nations

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Sept. 4.—The Petit Parisien understands that the forthcoming Assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva will be shorter than that of last year. It is expected that sittings will only be held in the morning, the afternoons being entirely devoted to the work of the Commissions, which will clear the ground for general discussion.

It is not thought, the Petit Parisien says, that the question of the admission of Germany to the League will be brought up this session, because Germany appears to have given up for the time being the idea of standing for membership, preferring to await the Council's decision on the Upper Silesia question, and also because of her desire not to incur the displeasure of the United States. Germany's discretion, the journal remarks, in abstaining from action can only assist her cause.

It is thought that the question of the admission of Hungary to the League is likely to give rise to vehement discussions. The Little Entente has made up its mind to place its veto on Hungary's entry, so long as the Government of Budapest has not clearly repudiated the Hapsburg dynasty and renounced its irredentist ambitions. On the other hand, according to the Petit Parisien, the candidatures of Lettonia and Lithuania are expected to meet with a favorable welcome, the legal and territorial status of these countries now havin been clearly established.

PLAN REGIONAL GROUPS

The amendment to the League Covenant proposed by the Czecho-Slovak delegation, permitting the formation of regional groups within the body of the League of Nations based on identity of political and economical interests, is one of the most important questions on the agenda of the Assembly.

The Council of the League will submit a detailed report on the subject of traffic in arms, manufacture of war material, supervision of armament and blockade. "The final decisions of the League," the Petit Parisien remarks, "will probably be influenced by the preparations under way for the Washington Disarmament Conference. The study of measures, the object of which is to avert all threats of war in the future, will have as its logical conclusion the election of judges to the International Court of Justice, the creation of which has been definitely assured by the adhesion of 30 or more States to the project."

The Assembly will also have to deal with the Albano-Greek and Albano-Servian disputes. It will further endeavor to induce the States holding credits and mortgages against Austria and for example, the United States and Rumania and to renounce their claims in order to make it possible for the agreement just reached between the Commission for the Relief of Austria and the Vienna Government to take definite shape in the financial cooperation of the Powers, of which Austria has already been assured.

TO ELECT DELEGATES

Finally the Assembly will have to elect the four non-permanent members of the Council in succession to the present occupants, Spain, Brazil, Belgium and China. The Scandinavian countries and the Little Entente in particular are desirous of obtaining seats on the Council, and the names of Dr. Benes (Czecho-Slovakia) and M. Take Jonesco (Rumania) are already mentioned in this connection. The Jugo-Slavs similarly hold that admission to membership of the Council of the League would constitute a just recompense for their sufferings during the War, as was done in the case of Belgium.

The incidence of the expenses of the League upon members will also form a subject of criticism, according to the Petit Parisien, particularly from Italy and the British Dominions. The above are the main questions with which the Assembly will have to deal.

CHINA'S CASE At The CONFERENCE, III.

BY J. E. DOYLE

SHANTUNG is an enigma. The little city of Tsingtao is an aggregate of opposites and contradictions. The Leased Territory and the events which have transpired within its boundaries since Germany's possessions and opportunities were transferred to Japan present naught but a series of doubts, misapprehensions and alternative fears. No one but the Japanese knows where he is at and what is coming to him—and at times there is ample reason to believe that the Japanese wonder just a little whether or not they are to realise on the tremendous investment of time, effort and yen in their attempt to act the role of commercial traffic policemen for Tsingtao and the products of Chinese land and labor in China's own province of Shantung.

Liberal Japanese in Japan have taken to heart the world's refutation of the senseless legend "German superiority," as expounded by a monarch who believed Britain approaching a civil war, France degenerate, Russia decadent and America too proud to fight. Commercial Japanese in Tsingtao, more accustomed to figuring costs and overhead, estimating production and buying peanuts rather than unravelling the platitudes of historians, are openly declaring that there must be a change in Japan's attitude—particularly as regards the issue under discussion, the Shantung question.

NEED WESTERN CAPITAL

Japan's business men who have flocked into Tsingtao and Shantung in the last seven years have not realised the huge profits they anticipated. One of the most important Japanese firms lost so heavily a year ago in a single commodity, peanuts, that its manager was removed. Others were hit nearly as hard. The goose captured at Versailles after its diet of "racial equality" has not laid the requisite number of golden eggs and the Japanese business men are calling for a wider opening of Tsingtao under international control, that European and American capitalists and traders will come and invest and buy and sell and assist in the development of a China port, a China city filibustered by a Japan intoxicated with the doctrines of such patriotic, though rhetorical, effusions as "crying need for expansion." These Western merchants must come to an international Tsingtao, of course, that Japan may realise on her alleged investment—of blood and money, as the Japanese business men say.

But Tsingtao, Tsinan, the coal mines of Fangtsze or Poshan, and the Shantung railway cost Japan practically nothing; acre upon acre of Chinese soil have been acquired by Japan at no cost whatsoever. A railway which netted a profit last year of sixteen millions of yen (the sixth year of its operation by Japan's Imperial Government) cost Japan but Yen 29,000,000, paid to the private German shareholders who formerly owned and operated the now-named Santo Railway and insisted among other things, that German officers riding in first-class compartments pay first-class fares. The original cost of the Shantung Railway was sixty millions of marks. And a mark meant something when this remarkable railroad was built.

The Germans who were unlucky enough to hold shares in the railway but who were Germans nevertheless and thus subscribed to the Hohenzollern program, may collect the remainder of their investment returns from the Republic of Germany, Japan has decreed. Japan has not suggested when or how the Republic of Germany will get its funds—but perhaps c'etait la guerre.

TAXES NOT SUFFICIENT

Tsingtao and Shantung have not been profitable to Japan—as yet. The Government of the Leased Territory has been run at a loss and the last fiscal year saw Tokio allot four millions of yen for administration and improvements. The taxes are not sufficient to support Tsingtao, the Civil Governor told me, and Tokio pays the expenses of the army, too. But godowns are being erected, dwelling houses are rising all over the city where Japanese have squatted with the help of their government, an ambitious harbor project has been outlined and partly completed and extensions are dreamed for the Shantung Railway. These godowns and dwellings continue to spring up here and there over the landscape although many of those already erected are not yet occupied and if the present busi-

Countess Von Bernstorff Sues United States For Seized Millions

COUNTESS Jeanne von Bernstorff, wife of the former German Ambassador to Washington, in whose behalf a suit to recover approximately $1,000,000 worth of property, seized during the war by the Enemy Alien Custodian, was filed in the Washington Supreme Court. The Countess alleges that none of the property involved came to her from German, Austrian or other enemy sources, it having been inherited from her father, the late Edward Luckemeyer, of New York.

MOPLAH REBELS USE ROCKETS IN WAR ON BRITISH

(Reuter's Service)

Calicut, Sept. 4.—The fight at Tirurangadi which resulted in the capture of the rebel leader Ali Musliar and 42 other Moplahs lasted several hours, the rebels resisting desperately until the end. About 40 Moplahs were killed, while two British soldiers were killed and four wounded.

The rebels used a kind of rocket, carrying a sharp spike. A quantity of explosives and weapons were captured.

As the result of the rebellion, the harvesting of the first crop is almost out of the question in many parts and fears are entertained in regard to the second crop, owing to the wholesale paralysis of labour.

Thunder Struck Cook And Faithful Servant

Soochow, Sept. 3.—After a heavy rainfall for successive days and nights, the sun had shrinked back with all his brightness behind the clouds for those several days. Cool air and damp atmosphere reigned over this city with much discomfort and downfallen spirit.

Unexpectedly in the morning of previous day, Phoebus waded forth through the expanded sheets of darkness and unveiled his face far up in the high vault of heaven with all splendor and cheerfulness.

Suddenly in the afternoon, the coal-black clouds again gathered round him from all quarters and forced him to retreat down behind them.

A gigantic shower immediately followed with all its intensity. The thunder-lightning had continued for an hour and half, when a tremendous cracking sound was to be heard in all quarters in this city heralded by a reddish fire flashing before our eyes. A cooker, one among the four who were playing their game —Pan Moa Tsiang—in a house near the city skirts, dropped down from his chair and laid on his back upon the ground. His faithful servant, a dog, had accompanied him to the world beyond.

"Black heart," "Black heart," was the only words slipped out from every one's lips in this city.

Wuchang Glad He Can Save Wuhan Cities From Pillage

(Staff Wire To The China Press)

Hankow, Sept. 5.—Following a spirited attack by Szechuenese troops on the Yangtsze city of Ichang on Saturday when landing parties were ordered ashore from American, British and Japanese gunboats, it is reported through American naval wireless from up river that a truce has been brought by the intervention of Consular officials at Ichang.

When the firing was started the Hupeh troops evacuated the southern bank of the river opposite the city. A number of houses were set afire in the attack on the city but it is not known that any lives were lost.

The landing forces were from the U.S.S. Elcano, U.S.S. Monocacy, British gunboat Scarab, and Japanese gunboat Toba. The Consular body was able to negotiate peace on request of the Hupeh commander chiefly by reason of the arrival of news confirming reports of the armistice between Wu Pei-fu and Chao Heng-ti.

(Staff Wire To The China Press)

Hankow, September 3.—Generals Wu Pei-fu and Chao Heng-ti met Thursday at Yochow to discuss peace terms, the meeting place, it is reliably reported, being a British gunboat. After an exchange of greetings the guards of both men were ordered to retire.

General Wu Pei-fu stated that he could not be blamed for the fighting, which he declared was due to misunderstanding created by intriguers. General Chao asked for a statement of the Chihli leader's plans for a settlement, to which General Wu replied that first of all the Chihli and Hunan troops must stop fighting.

Following this he proposed that Chao Heng-ti, Chen Kwang-yuan and himself jointly issue a circular promoting a convention at Lushan for the purpose of trying to solve the problem of national unification.

General Chao Heng-ti approved the plan and the following armistice terms were concluded:

1.—Sung Hung-ying's Kwangsi troops are to evacuate Hunan forthwith.

2.—The Kiangsi troops are to retire to Laokwan and the Hunan troops on the border are to return to Liling.

3.—Hunan troops shall evacuate Shihshow, Kungan and Tashi-yi; the Hunan Eighth division to remain at its present position but not to attack.

4.—Along the Pingkiang-Tungchien line the Hunan troops are to return to Liuyang, the Hupeh troops remaining at Tungchien.

5.—The Lo Peh river is to be the dividing line between the forces and within three days the Hunan troops shall be withdrawn to Hsiangying (and Peh Shui?) and the Chihli troops be stationed at Hwangshakai and Changlokai.

6.—The Chihli troops shall allow the Hunan troops to withdraw unmolested.

7.—The Changsha-Yochow and Chuchow-Pingchow railway lines are to be put back into operation and communications along the Kiangsi border be kept open.

8.—The Chihli and Hunan troops, upon receiving telegraphic instructions, should move to their appointed places and make no further preparations for fighting.

9.—These are temporary armistice arrangements. Both sides shall demobilise when definite peace terms have been concluded.

Peking, August 31.—A foreign telegram from Hankow says that the wave of opposition to General Wu Pei-fu in Hupeh has passed. In connection with General Wu Pei-fu's returning popularity in that

MILLIONS FACING DEATH; AMERICAN COMMITTEE FEARS

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Sept. 3.—The American Red Cross Commissioner to the Baltic States, who has just arrived from Riga, expresses the opinion that over two million Russians will die from famine in spite of all the help the whole world can offer. He estimates the cost of feeding the starving with a pound of bread daily at $1,000,000 a day.

CURZON URGES ACTION

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 3.—Lord Curzon has written to the Lord Provost of Glasgow, supporting the Lord Mayor of London's suggestion that every city and town in the kingdom should immediately inaugurate Russian relief funds. He adds that the Government is anxious that every possible assistance should be given to the famine-stricken Russians.

According to news received in London, Trotsky, addressing an extraordinary meeting of the Moscow Soviet on the 30th ult., inveighed against the Allied countries for inviting Rumanian aggression, with the object of depriving Russia of corn from the Ukraine.

Dealing with the famine situation, he is reported to have declared that the richer countries, instead of helping Russia, confined themselves to telling her that she must count upon herself alone.

Heroine Of Labrador Land Now On Shanghai Board

By Elsie McCormick

Doctor, dentist, financial adviser, dietitian, and social arbiter for one thousand miles of bleak Labrador coast-line, Dr. Vivian Appleton, who reached Shanghai a few days ago on the Empress of Asia, is the heroine of a unique piece of pioneering work among the most isolated people on the American continent. Dr. Appleton will remain in Shanghai as successor to Dr. Clara Sargent Shepherd on the Council of Public Health Education, giving her time chiefly to the field of hygiene propaganda.

Dr. Appleton went to Labrador in 1919, where she remained in charge of Dr. Wilfred Grenfell's hospital at Forteau during one of the coldest winters on record there. The complete isolation from the outside world, the paucity of interests, the meagre standards of life, and the continual hardship of battling for existence in the fierce Arctic winds make the coast of Labrador one of the most unenviable residence sites this side of Dante's Inferno.

The only people we would like to see move there are those who sing, "I Hear You Calling Me" at amateur concerts, and the people who take newspaper photographs of lady tennis champions in action.

CUT OFF FROM WORLD

"For six months Newfoundland Labrador is entirely shut away from the world," Dr. Appleton said. "No supplies are received, and the one mail which comes in takes three months by dog-sled from Quebec. It is impossible to leave during this period, for boats are barred by the frozen seas and no guides can be found to risk the trip overland. During the summer, a small mail boat comes in about once a month, but at all times communication is very uncertain. Medical supplies which were despatched from New York at the time I left for the north reached Labrador after I returned to the United States, some ten months later. At least thirty percent of the goods sent to the Labrador coast are never delivered."

Serving a thousand miles of coast dotted by twenty-seven villages, Dr. Appleton was frequently called out in the dead of winter for a long trip over frozen bays or across snow-buried wind-swept hills. Some of her journeys took ten days by dog-sled and all of them were considered hazardous by even the experienced guides of the district. Sledding by either land or sea was extremely rough, the way leading over a jagged, boulder-strewn country, or over the uneven ice on the locked-in harbors.

Dr. Appleton's special interest was preventive medicine. She investigated the diet of the region, with the hope of helping to control the epidemics of scurvy and beri-beri which inflict practically all the villages of the Labrador coast.

MONOTONY OF MEALS

"Owing to the rigorous climate and the difficulty of shipping in supplies, their meals are almost unbelievably monotonous," Dr. Appleton said. "There were exactly thirteen cows to supply 1,800 people, and during the nine months I was there I saw only eight eggs. For four months together there was not an egg to be had at any price. The average meal consisted of tea, salt meat, bread, and molasses. Dried beans and split peas were considered luxuries, to be served only once a week. Our nearest approach to butter was oleomargarine, and not all the households had even that. By the time the first summer supplies arrived, most of the households were living entirely on bread and tea."

In order to combat this condition, Dr. Appleton turned agriculturist. She demonstrated that a cow, properly fed, will give milk throughout the winter; and that vegetables, scientifically fertilised, will come to a head even in the pale, subarctic spring. The Labrador people planted cabbages every year, but complained that winter returned before they unfolded more than a few anemic leaves.

Being fishermen by trade, they knew practically nothing about the soil, and their truck farming was conducted according to the hit or miss rules of the average city war garden. Dr. Appleton proved to be as handy with the hoe as she was with the scapel and the size of her hospital-grown cabbages became the talk of the Labrador coast.

From the standpoint of social welfare, the dreary stretch of islands, bays and inlets is as neglected as the ruins of a remote Abyssinian city. In only seven of the twenty-seven villages was there a school-teacher, and as these teachers were paid $200 a year, they were hardly shining lights of the intellectual world. There was no physician in Newfoundland Labrador during the winter of 1919 except Dr. Appleton, and the few clergymen on the coast traveled through driving blizzards in an effort to reach the many villages on their circuits. One little village was a community of widowers, nearly every

IRISH REPLY RAISES 'CONSENT OF GOVERNED' AS PRINCIPLE; BRITISH PRESS DEMURS TO IT

ANSWER LACKS CHEER

(Reuter's Service)

LONDON, Sept. 5.—Mr. de Valera's reply is generally voted a cheerless document, first because it is argumentative and does not pay heed to the Prime Minister's warning as to the impossibilty of maintaining the truce indefinitely by a mere exchange of notes, and secondly because the suggestion of a meeting of plenipotentiaries, untrammelled by any conditions, involves the Prime Minister's sacrifice of its vital conditions which even the most Liberal papers consider impossible.

Nevertheless, several papers, notably The Daily News and The Times urge the Government to summon Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries to a conference as a way out of the deadlock to which the present note-writing is tending.

Decline British Proposal For Ireland Dominated By Anything But Own Free Will In Gov't.

MUST BE FREED

Contract With Britain Is Force Majeure, Not Wish Of Irish People

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 4.—The Sinn Fein reply, which is now published, rejects the Government's proposals for an Irish settlement, on the ground that they would not confer Dominion status. It says this rejection is irrevocable, but that Sinn Fein is ready immediately to appoint plenipotentiaries to negotiate on the basis of the principle of "government by consent of the governed."

It is understood that the reply is considered in Government circles to be a definite rejection of the Government's proposals, and that the situation is regarded as extremely grave.

Mr. de Valera in his letter says the Irish, too, are convinced it is essential that some definite and immediate progress should be made towards a basis on which further negotiations can usefully proceed. It describes the historical references in Mr. Lloyd George's last communication as fallacious, and says the essential data of the problem are as follows:

NO VOLUNTARY UNION

(1) The people of Ireland, acknowledging no voluntary union with Great Britain, and claiming as fundamental and natural the right to choose freely for themselves the path they shall take to realise their national destiny, have, by an overwhelming majority, declared for independence and established a republic.

(2) Great Britain, on the other hand, acts as though Ireland were bound to her by a contract of union that forbade separation. "The circumstances of the supposed contract are notorious; yet on the theory of its validity the British Government and Parliament claim to rule and legislate for Ireland, even to the point of partitioning Irish territory against the will of the Irish people, and killing or casting into prison every Irish citizen who refuses allegiance."

The British proposals (Mr. de Valera continues) are based fundamentally on the latter premises. The Irish people have rejected these proposals, and the rejection is irrevocable. The proposals, he affirms, are not an invitation to Ireland to enter a free and willing partnership with the free nations of the British Commonwealth. The proposals were an invitation to Ireland to enter under conditions determining her status, and on a definitely inferior status to those free States.

DOMINIONS' SAFEGUARDS

The Dominions, Mr. de Valera contends, are all guaranteed against the domination of a major State, not only by acknowledged constitutional rights, which give them equality of status with Great Britain and absolute freedom from the control of the British Parliament and Government, but by the thousands of miles which separate them from Great Britain. Ireland would, on the other hand, have no guarantees, either of distance or of right.

The conditions sought to be imposed in the Government's terms would, Mr. de Valera contends, divide Ireland into two artificial States, each destructive of the other's influence in any common council, and both subject to the military, naval and economic control of the British Government.

The Irish people, continues Mr. de Valera, are willing that a neutral and impartial arbitrator should judge between the diametrically opposed interpretations of history and the fact of geographical propinquity, held respectively by the British Government and the Irish. The British Government refuse, and threaten to give effect to their view by force. The Irish reply can only be that, if the British Government should adopt that course, the Irish can only resist.

Force will not solve the problem, Mr. de Valera argues. It will never secure victory over reason and right. Threats of force must be set aside from the beginning, as well as during the actual conduct of negotiations. The respective plenipotentiaries must meet untrammelled by any conditions except the facts themselves, and must be prepared to reconcile their subsequent differences, not by appeals to force, either covert or open, but by reference to some guiding principle, on which there is common agreement.

ONLY BY CONSENT

The Irish have proposed the principle of "government by consent of the governed." It is the simple expression of the test to which any proposed solution must respond if it is to prove adequate. On this basis only the Irish people see a hope of reconciling "the considerations which must govern the attitude" of Great Britain's representatives with the considerations that must govern the attitude of Ireland's representatives, and on this basis the Irish are ready immediately to appoint plenipotentiaries.

experts appointed by the Commission will leave for Russia as soon as the Soviet Government has agreed to their undertaking the proposed inquiry, and has provided traveling facilities for them.

The Italian delegation to the Relief Commission has pointed out that the sending of the commission of inquiry to Russia is not to be regarded as a dilatory measure, inasmuch as private relief work will meanwhile be going on.

HARBIN ALSO HELPS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, Aug. 27.—Harbin has not remained a mere spectator in the famine relief work. Mr. Ozormine, the Representative of the Far Eastern Republic, was the first to appeal to all organisations, institutions and individuals, calling on them to forget party quarrels and to quite their efforts in helping the famine-stricken regions.

However, most of the Right elements have refused to partake in this work of organisation on the ground of their lack of confidence in the Reds. This position has provoked indignant articles in the Left press.

The standpoint taken by the Right elements is that unless food is distributed under the control of foreign Powers, it is not likely to reach its destination. If this control is established, the adherents of the Right are prepared to do their utmost to help.

An America-Russian Committee has consequently been formed, whose relations with the other committee are not yet quite clear, but will be defined in the near future after a united meeting of both committees.

SITUATION IS GHASTLY

Harbin, Aug. 27.—An engineer who has just arrived from Soviet Russia describes the situation there as ghastly. He emphatically denies the information of Red officials as regards conditions in Soviet Russia, and declares that things have been allowed to go so far that no Government, however powerful, will be able to delay an outburst of anarchy.

He also denies, however, the rumors of numerous organised anti-Bolshevik movements. These risings, he says, are of a purely non-political character, and are generally easily quenched.

As regards the movement of the famine-stricken population, it is not organised and has no leaders. He is convinced, however, that this movement is a more serious threat to the Bolsheviks than all the Koltchak, Denikin and Wrangel armies put together.

Abyssinian Raids Drive British Out Of Border Cities

(Reuter's Service)

Nairobi, September 3.—Abyssinian raiding parties have crossed the border to Kenya and the British inhabitants have been evacuated from Gaddaduanna and Sulemuddo without casualties.

The military authorities, while maintaining an attitude of reticence, admit the raids but state that the latest reports indicate that the district is now quiet. The situation is believed to be serious. The enemy is extending his advance further inland, but details are at present unobtainable.

INVITED TO EXHIBIT

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, August 28.—The Chinese Government has been asked to participate in the Industrial Products Exhibition, which is to be held in Amsterdam about the middle of September. The Chamber of Commerce, however, to whom the matter was referred, consider that there would be no time to prepare exhibits before the opening of the Exhibition.

GERMAN LABOR'S SUPPORT GAINS PRAISE FOR GOV'T

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 4.—The firmness of the German Government in resolutely suppressing Monarchist and reactionary movements has gained them much popular respect which has hitherto been somewhat lacking. Events have proved that German Labor, both moderate and extreme, supports the Government and upholds the Republic. The authorities vigorously suppressed monarchist demonstrations, such as the Sedan celebrations, in various parts of Germany.

Bavaria, which has hitherto resisted the firm measures of the Central Government, appears to be yielding to pressure, and the Bavarian newspapers which defied the Berlin order to suspend publication have now ceased to appear. The Saxon Government is strongly supporting the Central Government.

The Allies regard favorably the strengthening of the Wirth Ministry, because it is a guarantee that the Versailles Treaty will be carried out.

The troubles between Austria and Hungary about Burgenland are still unsettled, but it is hoped that the strong remonstrance of the Allies will induce Hungary to yield without bloodshed.

FRANCE SEEKS DECISION

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, September 3.—The Government has refused to sanction the agreement arrived at last month by the Allied financial experts, under which France had no share in Germany's first cash payment. An Allied conference will reconsider matters soon.

American Women Plan Entertainment

The American Woman's Club will be hostess at a mah-jong party to take place next Tuesday evening, a week from today at 9:15 p.m. in the Columbia Country Club, proceeds from which will be used for meeting some of the organisation's special expenses. Tickets may be purchased from any of the following members of the Arrangements Committee: Mesdames Percy L. Bryant, Robert Lang, George B. Fryer, N. G. Harris, and J. K. Gold.

Japanese Turned Down When Asking Grain Shipments

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, August 31.—The Japanese Consul-General at Tsinanfu has applied for transportation of 200,000 tons of wheat from Shantung to Tsingtao for export to Japan.

The Shantung Provincial Assembly is strongly opposed to the export of grain from the province at this time, as, owing to the floods, the crops have been very bad this year. It has therefore telegraphed to the Government, asking it to prohibit the buying of wheat in the province for foreign markets.

The Japanese merchants contend that the right to export wheat from Shantung was given them in 1919, and that they intend to regard that as an established precedent. The position of the Assembly on the other hand is that permission was granted at a time when the crops were particularly good, but it cannot be claimed as a precedent on which to base a demand for export of grain this year, when the harvest is exceptionally bad. The matter is now being considered by the Government.

woman having died because of lack of care in maternity.

HAD NEVER SEEN HORSE

"Most of the families have lived in Labrador for three generations, and their ignorance of the rest of the planet is nothing short of appalling," Dr. Appleton said. "One young girl who helped in the hospital had never seen a horse. She had a vague idea that it was just a little larger than a dog. I told another young woman about my home in California, and asked her to look up the state on a map. She came back from the school-house to report that the only map they possessed was one of Newfoundland.

"One of the most pathetic situations was the complete lack of curiosity on the part of the children. I read book after book to one little boy, hoping to arouse his interest, but the tales of cities and nations, of adventure and history struck sparks with nothing in his own experience and therefore left him absolutely cold. The only time he showed a flicker of enthusiasm was when I read about Sinbad the sailor camping on the back of a whale because he thought it was an island. That incident led him to ask several questions about methods of fishing in other countries. It was the only industry about which he knew anything."

RECITATION RECORD

Social activities took the form of square dancing and an occasional "concert," which included practically everything but music. Dr. Appleton attended one at which fifty-five recitations were given in a period of four hours, all of which were repeated in a high-pitched, sing-song voice. The lady physician, as social arbiter of the community, introduced the Virginia Reel, but found that some of the stricter elements considered it too modern and risque. Though there are a few Victrolas in the district, pianos are not to be found.

Newfoundland Labrador is a land without a government. Customs officials visit the coast during the summer, but during the long months of winter, there is not a public official for a stretch of a thousand miles. The coast is without any machinery for punishing crime, settling civil disputes, or enforcing the law. But the people of Labrador, knowing the impossibility of escape for six months of the year, do little worrying about "crime waves." A malefactor who tried to leave the district would die in a snow-drift instead of on a scaffold, and justice would probably be quite a bit more speedy than in a less rigorous court. In summer the annual collection of law-breakers is handed over to the customs authorities.

WAS MAGISTRATE TOO

During her winter in Labrador, Dr. Appleton functioned as unofficial magistrate. Small civil cases and neighborhood quarrels were brought to her for settlement, and by dint of her prestige in the community, she succeeded in stopping the distilling of illicit whisky. She also increased the school attendance by limiting her party invitations to those children who were enrolled in class.

Poor, bleak, isolated, wind-beaten, and fog-washed, it is astonishing that any human being would consider the Labrador as a place of abode. Yet a young man who went to work in a Montreal machine shop gave up a well-paid position and returned to his little village on an inlet of the northern coast. "I couldn't stand having a master," he said in explanation. "The men in the shop said I'd get used to it, but I couldn't. Up here on the Labrador the life is free and we know nobody's will except our own."

Even the pale sunshine, the drifting fogs and the beating waves of the Labrador have their charm, provided they are endured willingly by those who price freedom above modern styles, labor disputes or the latest jokes in Broadway musical shows.

TRAINS RESUMED DESPITE DANGER OF FLOODED TRACK

(China Press Correspondence)

Nanking, Sept. 5.—Now that train service has been resumed between Shanghai the north travelers are beginning to realise the extent of the catastrophe in the flooded districts. In places the railroad bed is so weakened that the trains have to be split, and pushed over the dangerous spots a single coach at a time.

From the train bodies can be seen floating on the water, sometimes the bodies of a whole family tied together with a rope as evidence of suicide by compact. Villages have been completely wiped out of existence by the sudden rising of the flood. The real suffering is yet to come when the scanty food supplies which have been salvaged give out, and when the cholera now in evidence begins to spread.

PORTUGAL'S NEW PREMIER TO TAKE NATIONAL POLICY

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, September 3.—The new Portuguese Premier, Senhor Antonio Granjo, who is a Liberal in the course of a declaration of policy, said his Government proposed to adopt a national program, by reflecting the section of public opinion which demanded the reduction of public expenditure, the defense of the Republican regime and the development ture, the defense of the Republic of the country's resources.

Grain Exchanges Get Cold Shoulder

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 1.—Many merchants at Hankow have recently applied to the Ministry of Commerce for registration of stock and grain exchanges, but nearly all these applications have been rejected.

China's Case At The Conference

ness depression continues, tenants may be hard to find.

The pertinent query is oft made by these over-suspicious foreigners: "When will China be called upon to pay the bill, and how?"

When Japan's guns and troops drove the German from Kiauchow, her nationals flocked to the new El Dorado in no uncertain numbers. By 1920 there were 29,494 Japanese, 2,000 more than are in the Railway Zone and Tsingtao today. They came, acquired land, erected buildings on practically every parcel of desirable property, reclaimed a new city, built factories, invested millions.

AID FROM GOVERNMENT

Following the military occupation of Tsingtao the program of Japan's Government called for absolute mothering of her nationals' commercial ambitions. The officials looked far enough ahead to centralise the commercial and industrial district and saw to it that this section was near the wharves and the railways. The plan even today is to have the Eastern terminus of the Shantung Railway in this district, about where the Harbor Station is now. Japanese currency, Japanese banks, Japanese business methods, in short everything Japanese, including of course the Japanese officer with his swinging sword, came with Japanese occupation. All these still remain.

The Japanese had set the stage for the making of millions from exploitation of China's province and its citizens—when the Armistice came. A period of speculation followed. In April or May last year the silk market in Japan and Mogi's banks fell with a crash which reverberated to Tsingtao and along 400 kilometers of railway to Tsinanfu. Silver took a slump which caught not only Japanese. But the Japanese in the former German territory lost more heavily than others for they had gambled wildly, in everything from hairnets and straw braid to peanut oil and factory sites. Yet they were obliged to go on.

MERCHANTS DIS-SATISFIED

Today these business men are making money in a small way for the Armistice, the business depression in Japan and the slump in exchange taught bitter lessons but they are dis-satisfied because the Leased Territory is still under martial law and the Shantung Issue is high in the air. These merchants and traders "want the whole thing settled" but I found only one man who thought that "perhaps the Washington Conference would help clear away some of the difficulties." He is a Harvard man with a degree from Columbia and knows Boylston street and Broadway as well as he does Santo Machi or Yamashita-cho.

Tokio says that Versailles has settled the Shantung Issue once and for all. The majority of Japanese business men in Tsingtao, Tsinan or anywhere along the line, unsettled and disgruntled though they are, echo: "Shantung must be settled by direct negotiation with China." Meanwhile Peking refuses to negotiate and plans to send orators to Washington in November.

TOUJOURS "THE FUTURE"

Plans for an international government of Tsingtao are expounded by officials, merchants, professional men, newspapers and hotel clerks. "The future of the port," is the subject discussed everywhere. Dr. Akiyama, the capable Civil Governor, went so far as to say that the Yen 4,000,000 necessary from Japan during the last fiscal year "might be thrown into the treasury of the international municipality, as a gift from Japan."

Hardly a gift; for of the 1,693 building permits issued since 1914, 30 were to foreigners and 443 to Chinese and many of the latter represent Sino-Japanese enterprises. The dues and duties collected by the Maritime Customs during 1920 under the Japanese flag totalled Hk Taels 1,038,173.99, over twice the amount collected under the British flag. Of the 957 leases granted for land, 587 went to Japanese. Forty foreigners braved the high Japanese commercial wall surrounding the city. Chinese leases totalled 330.

In the same interview when Dr. Akiyama said that he believed an international settlement offered the proper solution he said that the question of a Japanese concession had not been settled.

"I only want a good administration here," he said.

"Suggest a practical solution for the protection of Japanese," I said.

"There may be a Japanese concession," was his answer.

ALL ARE WONDERING

The series of paradoxes is not confined to Japanese. The Chinese has no idea of his future, the Russian builds houses as his people starve, the German is looking on with a more or less amused expression but behind it is a grim respect for the efficiency with which his 22 years of labor have been adapted to Japanese ends. Even the so-called by a Nipponese trained in Munich German beer is Japanese, brewed who works with wheat from Australia, hops from Hokkaido, malt from America and Tsingtao water. The result is sent far and wide in bottles made in Korea and Dairen.

Another delightful paradox is seen in the management of the hotels. The Japanese who is the representative of the Osaka Company which owns the three hotels was once "boy" for the General Manager, an Australian of Irish descent, who was for many years in Yokohama and incidentally is a popular and efficient hotel man.

One of these hotels, with its large veranda, is the rendezvous of the grouches. Every evening foreigners of all nationalities meet and discuss Tsingtao's future and laugh at the English version of the Japanese traffic regulations and plan to write the Governor requesting a new sign to replace the present injunction "No Admittance to Leave the Shower Open."

Everyone in Tsingtao has a grouch, be he Japanese, Chinese or foreigner and every newcomer, particularly a newspaper correspondent, must hear the tales of woe, many of which are trifling and are nursed during a winter when Tsingtao is not crowded with vacationists.

Dissatisfaction is evidenced everywhere, even among the Japanese, as I said above, and Shantung will be an ugly knot for the international group of diplomats in Washington to untangle.

Kansu Flood Is Great Disaster

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, August 31.—The floods in Kansu are declared to be the worst that the province has experienced for half a century, and the work of relief is consequently a very heavy one.

The Government today received a telegram, signed by representatives of the people of the province, petitioning the Government to permit the local authorities to retain the surtaxes on posts and telegraphs, and also on railway fares, which were previously devoted to famine relief work, for the relief of the sufferers in the flooded districts.

Boxer Indemnity To Be Given The League To Solve

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Aug. 30.—It is stated on good authority that there is a strong likelihood that the question of the Boxer Indemnity will be brought up at a future meeting of the League of Nations Council by Dr. Wellington Koo. It is reported that the Government has been in communication with Dr. Koo on the subject and has expressed its desire that the matter should be submitted to the League.

Wu Hold Yangtsze And Is Working For China Peace

region it is stated that in all his proclamations and official correspondence he has never made use of his new rank of Super-Tuchun, the seal affixed has been that of Assistant-Inspector-General of Chihli, Shantung and Honan.

There are many other indications in various reports from Hankow that General Wu is determined to retain his position as a democratic leader, and the belief is shown in these reports that when he has succeeded in restoring tranquility he will institute a movement for agreement with the provinces that are now half-hearted, with a view to some form of popular government and the disbandment of unnecessary troops.

Mr. Chu Ying-kuang, Assistant Director of the Unification Bureau, believes that the time is approaching when an agreement can be made with the South-western Provinces and he has telegraphed in that strain to the leaders of the South-west.

Hankow, Sept. 4.—Yochow and Changsha are now quiet. A traveler who has arrived here reports that peace between Hupeh and Hunan was signed on Friday.

General Shen Hung-ying, a Kwangsi divisional commander, recently arrived at Siangtan with his troops and summoned Generals Liu Tin-ping, Kung Keng and Chang Tso-ping to a meeting, at which it was decided to raise an army to overturn General Chao Heng-ti, the Tuchun of Hunan.

General Cheng Kung-yuen, of Kiangsi, has sent a delegate to Hankow, bringing two lakhs of dollars as an offering to General Wu Pei-fu, for the purpose of despatching troops into Kiangsi to resist General Li Lieh-chun.

Ichang, Sept. 4.—The fighting here continued yesterday and throughout the night. Early this morning the Szechuenese made a strenuous effort by which they succeeded in driving the Northerners across the river. They now hold the whole southern bank. At present there is a lull, probably due to the Szechuenese making their plans to take the city.

GUNBOATS LAND FORCE

Ichang, Sept. 3.—The Szechuenese troops began their attack yesterday afternoon across the river, as the Hupeh troops had been driven back that far. Firing continued all through the night, but the Hupeh troops are still on the other side of the river this forenoon, though only holding the nearest hills.

The Hupeh troops lost one captain and one major killed, and many men wounded. Great anxiety prevailed last night among the European residents, as the General had promised no substantial protection.

The warships Scarab, Elcano, Monocacy and Toba, which are in port, landed parties for the protection of foreign life and property.

Peking, September 2.—Telegraphic communication between Hankow and Changsha is interrupted with the result that very conflicting reports are being received with regard to conditions at the capital of Hunan. A wireless message sent by a Japanese gunboat at Changsha to Hankow says that "Kwangsi reinforcements have arrived at Hunan."

As Kwangsi, though virtually beaten, is still in sympathy with the North, this message is not clear, though it is possible that Kwantung reinforcements from Kwangsi may have reached Hunan.

On the other hand, according to Chinese official reports General Chen Kuang-yuan, Tuchun of Kiangsi, sent General Fang Pan-jen and General Hsiao An-ko to attack Changsha, and on the 1st instant General Hsiao's forces had reached the suburbs of Changsha City.

NOW NEAR CHANGSHA

Another telegram, received through railway channels, says that the 24th Chihli Division, commanded by General Chang Fu-lai, is now in the vicinity of Changsha and is co-operating with General Hsiao's forces. The capture of Changsha is now looked upon as assured by the Chinese Government, and it is reported that General Tsao Kun has requested the appointment of General Hsiao An-ko as Acting Tuchun of Hunan.

General Chao Heng-ti recently circulated a message to the provinces, public bodies and foreign representatives in China, which reached Peking by mail, saying that General Wu Pei-fu had asked for three days' armistice, to which General Chao agreed, but that during the term of the truce General Wu's forces attacked and captured Yochow. General Chao in this communication, asks for assistance against General Wu, on the ground that the latter had captured Yochow by unfair means.

Independent reports from Hankow, however, go to show that General Wu Pei-fu strictly observed the truce to the end of the period and that the Hunanese were the first to take the offensive subsequently with a movement in the direction of Wuchang.

It is reported that Mr. Chang Kou-kan will shortly be appointed Civil Governor of Hupeh.

Major-General Liu En-hung, a member of General Chang Tso-lin's staff arrived at Paotingfu on Wednesday. After an interview with General Tsao Kun, General Liu at once left for Hankow where he is instructed to follow the military situation.

DEFER LASH MANDATE

Peking, Aug. 30.—It is learned today that the punitive order, which was suggested to the Government by Generals Tsao Kun and Wu Pei-fu, will not be issued today. General Wu, it appears, has sent messengers to the South, stating that he is willing to come to terms, if he receives guarantees from the South of their repentance and assurances that no further aggression will be attempted. General Wu's headquarters are now established on board the warship, Chu Tai, which took part in the action against Yochow, and is now stationed at the northern end of Lake Tungting. Admiral Tu Hsi-kuei, commanding the Second Squadron, also has his headquarters on the Chu Tai.

GREEKS ADVANCE TAKING HEIGHTS AND HIVRY PASS

(French Wireless through Reuter).

Paris, September 4.—A Greek official communique, dated Smyrna, September 1, states that the Greeks, continuing to advance, have occupied the heights of Bastilkouy and the Hivry Pass, and have pushed on north-west of the village of Emil Fatili.

MOTHERS REST EASY AT NIGHT

Who Keep Baby's Own Tablets In The House.

Every mother knows those nights of alarm and unrest when the baby, or one or other of the older children, wakes up feverish and unwell. The problem then is what can best be done until the doctor comes in the morning.

The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, in the house feels safe, for the occasional use of these Tablets prevents stomach and bowel troubles, and if sickness comes suddenly they help bring the little one through.

Baby's Own Tablets are an absolutely harmless remedy for simple fever, indigestion, constipation, colic, diarrhoea, croup and colds. They quickly allay the pains of teething, and bring natural soothing sleep from which the little one awakes rested and refreshed. They destroy worms. Guaranteed free from opiates and narcotics and to be positively harmless even to the youngest infant. Chemists sell Baby's Own Tablets, or post free, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai, at 60 cents the vial.

and hundreds of refugees are fleeing to Palghat. Reports of robbery and plundering are arriving from Ponnani. The local police have telegraphed, saying that the treasuries at Ponnani and Chawgat are threatened, and requesting urgent millitary aid. It is reported that an ultimatum has been sent to the rebels, demanding their surrender in 48 hours.

REBELS FLEE TO BUSH

Bombay, Sept. 4.—The situation in Malabar is becoming easier, and the rebels are fleeing from the troops into the jungle. The rebel leader, Ali Musaliar, and a number of other Moplahs, are now safely lodged in jail.

GREAT MENACE SEEN

Madras, Sept. 3.—In the course of a speech to the Madras Legislature, Lord Willingdon (the Governor) declared that the religious fanaticism of the Moplahs was the instrument used by the leaders of a widespread and dangerous organisation, who were only watching for the opportunity to attempt violently to overthrow the Government and whole civil administration.

Although the policy of the Government had been as far as possible to avoid exciting public opinion, they were resolved to enforce the observance of law and order, and to punish the guilty, he added.

PUT HEAD ON POLE

Calicut, Sept. 3.—In addition to Ali Mudaliar, 30 Moplahs have been arrested.

Particulars in regard to the murder of a retired Hindu inspector of police, who was a staunch supporter of the Government, show that the rebels stuck his head on a pole and carried it through the bazaar.

It is reported that 300 Hindus of Melmurianshom have been forcibly converted to Islam.

MOPLAHS SURRENDER

Simla, Sept. 3.—The military have taken over charge at Tirurangadi, where a number of Moplahs have surrendered without fighting.

The warship Comus has left Calicut, as naval assistance is no longer necessary.

ARREST REBEL LEADER

London, Sept. 3.—The latest telegrams from India indicate a lull in the situation, and announce that the rebel leader, Ali Mudaliar, has been arrested.

He will lecture on "Education in a Republic" tomorrow at 4 p.m. at the Kiangsu Educational Association and will be the guest of honor at a banquet to be given by a number of local organisations and leading institutions on Thursday noon at the Yih Ping Shang Hotel. Dr. Monroe will leave for Nanking by the night train on Thursday.

TELL PANGERMANS NO SEDAN FETES CAN BE PERMITTED

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, September 2.—The police authorities have prohibited the Pan-Germans from holding celebrations of the anniversary of Sedan.

Trouble between Bavaria and the Imperial Government is threatened as the result of the measures taken by the latter for the protection of the Republic. Martial law has already been abolished in Central Germany and East Prussia, but there is talk in Munich of the convoking Bavarian Diet, to "repel the encroachment on Bavaria's autonomy," if the abolition of martial law is extended to Bavaria.

As already reported, the trade union leaders recently called on the Chancellor to abolish martial law in Bavaria, as well as in Central Germany and East Prussia, on the ground that it had been abused for reactionary purposes.

India's Outlook Is Fine Due To Rains

(Reuter's Service)

Simla, Sept. 3.—The monsoon brought abundant rain to all parts of the country during August, and in some parts the downfall was excessive. There was a much-needed break in the rains in southern and western India during the latter part of the month, but the monsoon is again strengthening in those regions. The conditon of the crops and the agricultural outlook for the whole country are excellent.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 1.—A robber tried to break into the President's office at midnight but was detected by one of the guards, who chased the intruder and seized him as he was getting over a wall. A fierce struggle ensued, but the robber broke away and finally made his escape. This morning a steel "jimmy" was found where the man was first seen. An inquiry into the affair this morning led to the belief that the man intended to assassinate the President, but no further details have been disclosed.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, September 4.—While no official announcement has been made, it is understood that the Chinese Government has decided that Doctor W. W. Yen shall head the Chinese delegation to the Pacific Conference and that Doctor Wang Chung-huai, Dr. Wellington Koo and Mr. Alfred Sze shall be his chief colleagues.

The inclusion of Dr. Wellington Koo in the delegation is a departure from the original intention, for it was at first considered that his presence was necessary in London during the Conference.

The delegation, which will number less than 100, will include experts and representatives of virtually all political, economic, educational, industrial, financial and legal departments and some scientific organisations.

Peking, August 31.—The Peking Conference Commission has invited Mr. Wang Tah-hsieh, Mr. Liang Ju-hao and Mr. Chow Tze-chi, Sir Francis Aglen and Dr. Ferguson to act as advisers to that commission.

It is understood that the following have been appointed by Dr. W. W. Yen, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, as members of the the Pacific Conference Preparation Commission:—

Messrs. Tang Tsai-chang, Chin Chih, Chang Yu-chuan, Chang Hou, Hsu Chow-hsung and Huang Tsung-fa.

BANKERS TO MEET

Peking, September 2.—The Chinese Bankers' Association will hold a meeting on September 10 at Tientsin to discuss the economic aspects of the Pacific Conference. The Conference will be attended by two delegates each from Peking, Tientsin, Hankow and Shanghai and by one delegate from each of the provinces. The main subject on the agenda is a proposal that an economic adviser should be attached to the Chinese delegation to the Pacific Conference in order that hearing may be secured before the Conference for China's economic problems.

WANT HARA TO ACT

Tokio, September 5.—The Jiji strongly urges, in view of the disadvantage created by the distance of Tokio from Washington, the appointment of Mr. Hara as delegate to the forthcoming conference, who, it says, by his position would be able to act with discretion. The paper does not expect the deliberations to result in a definite agreement on armament limitation, but it hopes that they will assist the formation of proper public opinion and the formulation of a general policy which, if secured, may be regarded as sufficient reward for the efforts expended by the delegations.

CUT BRITISH PRICES

London, September 4.—German textile houses, anticipating the official declaration of peace, have inundated home consumers with offers to supply them at prices under those for British goods, emphasising the favorable character of exchange.

DAVIS CUP FINALS GO TO AMERICA

Williams And Washburn Win Three Of Four Matches

TEAM WORK WON

Japanese Effort Was Brilliant But Un - availing

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Sept. 3.—The doubles match in the Davis Cup contest between the United States and Japan in the challenge round was decided this afternoon. The result was as follows:

Williams and Washburn (United States) beat Shimidzu and Kumagae (Japan), 6-2, 7-5, 4-6, 7-5.

The Americans, having won the two singles matches yesterday, thus retain the Davis Cup, of which they were the holders.

New York, September 3.—Eight thousand spectators witnessed the doubles match in the challenge round of the Davis Cup contest. The weather was hot but a cool breeze was blowing.

The team work of Williams and Washburn was far superior to that of their opponents who were frequently forced out of position. Two placements by Washburn materially assisted in giving the Americans the first set.

The American players took their place at the net in the second set, smashing the Japanese players' returns. The latter tried to lob but most of their lifts were short.

In the third set Williams and Washburn made numerous errors, while Kumagae made several pretty placements.

The games beginning the fourth set went alternately to the Japanese and the Americans, but in the fifth game the Japanese forged ahead, after deuce had been called, on the errors of Washburn and clever placing by Kumagae. Expert cross-court driving by Williams was the turning point in the ninth game and in the tenth Williams put the Americans in the lead with two placements, to which Washburn added another.

TENNIS ASSOC'N. CHAMPIONSHIPS ON TOMORROW

Semi-Final Round Postponed From Friday Set For This Afternoon

The sixth week's or semi-final round of play in the City League Tennis tournament of the Shanghai Lawn Tennis association, which was postponed last Friday because of wet grounds will be played off this afternoon. The program lists the following matches, with the home club named first:

Recreation Club vs. Japanese.

Columbia C.C. vs. Country Club.

Portuguese vs. Cercle Sportif.

The Portuguese are now leading in the standings with 18 matches won to two lost, for a total of 18 points. The Recs are second with 15 while the Cercle Sportif and the S.C.C. have 10 and 9 respectively. The Country Club and the C.C.C. are tied for fifth and sixth place at 8 points and the Japanese are in last position with 6 points.

The final matches Friday will decide first position in the final standings.

Other places in the table, down to the Japanese club, are about even. The Cricket Club on a bye today must drop considerably, while the other three middle clubs will fight for third position, with the C.C.C. and the Cercle Sportif holding the advantage for the honor.

C.S.F. SELECTIONS

The Cercle Sportif Francais last night announced the following pairs to represent them today in the city league matches:

1.—Knowles and Toussaint.
2.—Drummond and Khrenoff.
3.—Fawcett and Eldridge.
4.—Koning and Vermey.
5.—Columbine and A. E. S. Thompson.

TENNIS MATCH ON

A tennis tournament of singles and doubles for Chinese markers of the clubs comprising the Shanghai Lawn Tennis Association will commence tomorrow, with singles matches scheduled on the grounds of the S.R.C. and doubles at the Cercle Sportif Francais.

Five clubs are entered in the tournament with ten markers drawn for the competitions. The

BOWLING RINKS TITLE GOES TO AITKENHEAD'S 4

Solid, Steady Play Gives Them Championship Over Richards' Rink

FINAL SCORE WAS 32-13

The Rink Was A Bit Tricky And Bowlers Had To Go At Very Best

BY "THE SHOT"

Despite the elements the Rinks Championship final was played on Sunday last. This was largely due to the remarkable recuperative powers of the big Club's new green. As the probability of playing was so unlikely, the arrangements for spectators was naturally not what the club like to provide. Although the finalists were both Waysiders, many bowlers from all four clubs were present and it is usually in these sort of ties that the unexpected happens. Not so in this case however as after the first end the issue never seemed to be in doubt and Bob and his merry men seemed to have no difficulty in making every post a winning one.

I've just been going over the performances of Bob Aitkenhead and Alex Macgregor and I'm beginning to think that in the matter of taking championships the habit has developed into a disease with these two canny Scots. Both have single championships to their name and both were effective cogs in the redoubtable "big four" combination which was so sucessful in the Rink event. Now Bob has skipped his own rink to victory, a performance which I've no doubt gives him most satisfaction.

RINK WAS TRICKY

About the game! Well the rink provided was "nae so bad," a bit tricky perhaps but trickyness only serves to bring out a trundler's best qualities. Anyhow one hand would draw from the tapes while the other would allow about 2-6 and no more.

At the first end Jimmy Grieve lay a Kissing one and it looked good until Sandy Malcolm connected with a well judged second running jack and his own toucher in the ditch. Bob ditched his first and Charlie played the best shot of the match lying a shot eight inches from the edge of the green and opposite the jack. With Bob's second short Charlie charmed the spectators with another peach. This was so distinctly good that a lot of the "knowing heads" were heard to say "I knew it, Charlie will win in a walk." Bloom then threw a short jack and promptly laid one about three yards shorter and it was left to Geordie Miller to save a five which he did nothing else happened and Bob scored one this end.

BOB'S FOUR OUTBOWLED 'EM

From then until the seventh end Bob's four completely outbowled their club mates and led 10-2. At the seventh, mainly owing to fine work by Grieve and Miller Charlie's gang notched a four only to see it eclipsed by a five from Bob the next end. From now onward until the 20th end there was only one team in it except for an effort or two from Grieve and Geordie Millar.

I must say that Geordie and Charlie had my sympathy as they were generally forced to play the treacherous hand in a vain endeavor to connect. This was mainly owing to Bloom's consistently short bowling, somehow or other he could not get up and his woods were invariably a good block against his side.

At the 20th end the score was 32-11 and strangely enough it was at the last end that Charlie again brought the house down with a couple of peachy ones. With his first, he gently nudged Sandy's wood out and lay, and a beautifully judged second lay another, making his score thirteen.

STEADY WORK WON

The winners were good value for their victory and there was not a star on their side. Each man was bowling solidly and as a team they played perfectly. Archie Taylor was the very reliable lead we all know him to be, while Mac, Sandy and Bob were—well you all know their standard of play.

For the losers Bloom was not his usual self and his short play opened up a lot of difficulties for his mates. Jas Grieve was the star bowler of the side, without being classy, he was always laying somewhere in the vicinity of the jack. Geordie bowled quite well under a lot of difficulties. As a matter of fact Charlie, on many occasions, asked him for things which his woods were not capable of doing. Had you had a free hand, Geordie you'd ha'

Breaks A World's Record Twice In The Same Race

Miss Ethelda Bleibtrey, Olympic swimming champion, put a double dent in the world's record for 200 yards free style, at the water carnival in the 75-foot pool of the Brighton Beach Baths recently.

Competing in a 200-yard handicap at the distance she won her qualifying trial in 2m. 37 3-5s., as against the former standard of 2m. 38s. by Miss Charlotte Boyle of the same club, then did 2m. 36 4-5s. in the final, bettering the mark once more. Notwithstanding this brilliant performance she finished only third. Miss Lonnie Crittenden, who had a start of 77s., took first in 2m. 43 4-5s. and Miss Lillian Stoddard, on the 30s. mark, was second.

A 200-yard relay swim in which started New York and Philadelphia teams, proved an easy victory for the Misses Bleibtry, Boyle, Ederle and Meany of the Women's S. A. They led home by more than ten yards the Misses Clark, Arkley, Obertuffer and McGory of the Philadelphia Turngemende in 2m. 6 3-5s. The W. S. A.'s second string girls took third.

PIRIE WINS THE MEE-MEE CLAY PIGEON SHOOT

Interporters Hold Practice Shoot Tomorrow Afternoon At 4 O'clock

With a fine day and good clear light the shooting at the Shanghai Clay Pigeon Club, was well above the average on Sunday afternoon when the "Mee-Mee" Cup was competed for. The conditions were 40 birds under a sealed handicap, and for practice purposes half the number of birds were fired at under Interport Match conditions, namely 10 birds to each man, shot alone from center stand. Mr. W. G. Pirie was in first class form, and in breaking 37 birds with a handicap of 8, making 45 secured a well deserved win.

The undernoted are the full scores:

	Brks.	H'cap.	Total
Pirie	37	8 =	45
Nazer	37	6½ =	43½
Barrett	34	9 =	43

At 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon there will be a practice shoot for the Interport Match, and the undernoted gentlemen are requested to attend:

Messrs. Read, Gibson, Hexamer, Nazer, Algar, Gande, Beatty, Pirie and Moller.

AUSSIES START NEXT TO LAST MATCH OF TOUR

Close First Innings Against South Of England With 383 Runs

THEIR START WAS POOR

Lose First Five Wickets For 72 Runs Then Make Two Centuries

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 3.—The Australians opened the last match but one of their tour at Hastings today, when they were opposed by an eleven representing the South of England. The conditions of weather and wicket were perfect, and some 4,000 spectators were present.

Winning the toss, the Australians made a poor start, losing the first five wickets for 72 runs, but Armstrong and Andrews then became associated, and together added 248 for the sixth wicket. They wore out the bowling, but the fielding was always good. Armstrong's contribution was 156 not out, while Andrews, who gave a fine display of batsmanship put on 132. The innings closed for 383, at which stage stumps were drawn for the day.

Cyclers Race From Paris To Brest And Back

Paris, Sept. 5.—A cycle race from Paris to Brest and back—a distance of 800 miles—has been won by Mottiat, a Belgian competitor, in 55 hours 7 minutes 8 seconds. Christophe (France) finished second, in 55½ hours, and Masson (Belgium) third.

Aviation Grand Prix Of 300 Kilos Won By Lecointe

(Reuter's Service)

Brescia, Sept. 4.—The automobile Grand Prix was decided here today over a course 17 kilometers 400 meters long, which had to be covered 30 times. The winner was Goux (a Frenchman, driving a Ballot machine), whose time was 3 hours 35 minutes 9 seconds, giving an average speed of 144¾ kilometers an hour—a world's record. Another Frenchman, Chassagne, was second, in 3 hours 40 minutes 52 seconds, and Wagner, an Italian, third. During the race Bordino covered the seventh lap at a speed of 155 kilometers an hour.

The aviation Grand Prix was also decided today, the winner being Sadi Lecointe, the well-known French flyer, whose time for the 300 kilometers was 78 minutes 9 1-5 seconds, an average of 144 miles an hour. Brakpapa, an Italian, was second, in 89 minutes.

Hunghutze Greeted With Bullets But Still Are Menace

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, Aug. 27.—The Hunghutze have again become very active on the timber concession of Mr. Kovalsky, near Nantaohedzi station. A strong gang of brigands, after burning some stores, attempted to attack the office building, which was strongly guarded by a combined Russian and Chinese guard. The brigands were forced to retreat under strong rifle fire, but have not yet withdrawn from the concession.

General Mitrofanoff of the C. E. R. has been instructed immediately to proceed to the concession and take a detailed investigation.

Chita Takes Steps To Prevent Spread Of Bubonic Plague

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, Aug. 27.—Five cases of bubonic plague have been registered in the neighborhood of Dauria station. A combined Committee of Chinese, C. E. R. and E. E. R. representatives at Manchuria station is now working out the details of a new anti-plague campaign. It is understood that Chita is prepared to take drastic measures to prevent the epidemic from spreading, as the Government fears that the plague may prove a more serious obstacle in the way of resuming through traffic and trade with Manchuria than any that has hitherto arisen.

Onon River Bridge Fixed; Trains Move

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, Aug. 27.—It is reported that communication with Chita has been restored, as the bridge across the river Onon at last has been mended.

The C. E. R. is now accepting telegrams for Chita, but it is not yet possible to establish communication with Moscow.

It is understood that negotiations are proceeding with the object of improving the mail service, in order to enable private individuals to send parcels to their relatives and friends in Russia.

Japanese Deny They Gave Semenoff Train

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, Aug. 27.—It is persistently rumored that Ataman Semenoff has passed through Harbin to South Manchuria in a closed car, guarded by Japanese sentries. The local Japanese officials, however, emphatically deny this rumor.

DEBT OF WORLD

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, August 16.—The Prague Federated Press publishes the statistics of the New York National Bank according to which the combined debts of all the states in the world reach 300 billion American dollars as against 212 billion dollars at the time of signing the armistice between Germany and the Allies.

During the war the annual indebtedness increased by 40 billions, in the first year of peace it increased by 45 billions and last year it increased by 42 billions.

WORLD CONTROL OF POPPY PLAN OF U. S. BOARD

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, August 28.—Writing to the Rev. A. Bowerby, General Secretary of the Anti-opium Association, Peking, from Washington on July 19, Mrs. Hamilton Wright, the leading American advocate of drug suppression, says inter alia, that as the result of a big campaign in America the most influential men cabled to Dr. Wellington Koo, who was to present the Committee's report to the Council for action, "that public opinion in America demanded that if the League of Nations was to assume the responsibility for the opium question it must be prepared to see the thing through, irrespective of the material interests involved, and that it must insist upon the suppression of opium cultivation save for medicinal purposes."

The opium committee referred to above met under the League. There were eight representatives of the countries directly interested in the opium question and three Assessors or Advisers, namely Mrs. Hamilton Wright, Sir John Jordan and M. Henri Brenier.

The result of the telegram from America was that Dr. Koo, when introducing the question at the Council early in July, pointed out that "whereas international co-operation had hitherto been directed only towards progressive limitation of the traffic in opium, the conviction was now beginning to prevail in many countries that it was time for the progressive suppression of its production." Dr. Koo said that to deal with the question satisfactorily it was necessary to go to the very root of the question, and to this end the cultivation of opium should be reduced progressively and eventually limited to strictly medical and scientific purposes.

SEEK OUT REQUIREMENTS

This view, which was seconded by M. Hanotaux, was adopted by the Council, and a resolution was passed to the effect that the Advisory Committee on traffic in opium be requested to consider and report at its next meeting on the possibility of instituting an inquiry to determine approximately the average requirements of raw and prepared opium specified in chapters 1 and 2 of the Opium Convention for medicinal and scientific purposes in different countries.

A questionnaire was then sent to all countries signatory to the Opium Convention of 1912, and replies are expected by February next, when the Committee holds its next meeting in Geneva.

Mrs. Hamilton Wright says that China has hurt her cause enormously by allowing the recrudescence of poppy cultivation, and says that every effort should be made to stop it at once. Sir John Jordan suggested at Geneva that the Treaty Powers should be allowed to appeal directly to the military leaders in China through the foreign Consuls.

The Chinese representative, however, did not seem to see the point, and was afraid that the Central Government would lose face if such an appeal were made over the head of Peking. Mrs. Hamilton Wright thinks that the Central Government might waive its dignity in this case, for the Government will never regain its face while these men remain in power. It had also been suggested that a committee be sent to the affected regions to report upon the actual conditions.

The writer then says that there is a great world impetus to stop the production of opium at its source and the opponents of this proposed measure are only too glad to advertise China's broken pledges both towards India and her wider obligations assumed at the Hague.

Rhine Area Will Help Feed France

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Sept. 2.—The Minister of Agriculture has reported to th Cabinet that the forthcoming harvest will approximate 85,000,000 quintals, including 2,000,000 quintals from the Upper Rhine. The exceptionally high average of 16.40 quintals per hectare is anticipated from the Lower Rhine and Moselle areas.

India Bans All Export Of Wheat

(Reuter's Service)

Simla, Sept. 4.—Owing to the rapid rise in the price of foodstuffs, especially wheat, the Government of India has decided to continue the prohibition on the export of wheat and flour, at least till the end of next March. In order to prevent the depletion of stocks or the enhancement of prices, supplies for military use will be as far as possible purchased abroad.

In order to encourage private imports of wheat, particularly from Australia, and to assist the Indian flour-mill industry, the Government has decided to permit the re-export of imported wheat in the form of flour to the extent of 50 percent of the weight of wheat imported.

DIVES TO DEATH IN KULING POOL

(China Press Correspondence)

Kuling, Sept. 3.—Mr. Frank Gish of the Nanking Christian Mission was killed yesterday when he dived into the pool below the Goddess of Mercy Bridge on the Nankang side. His wife and four other ladies witnessed the tragedy. The body was not recovered.

Liner Nile Gets New Run On This Side Of Pacific

The steamer Nile of the China Mail Steamship Co. will be withdrawn from the trans-Pacific service, and upon her arrival in Hongkong, October 2, will inaugurate a local freight and passenger service between Shanghai, Hongkong and Japan ports.

All future bookings for the Nile to Japan, Honolulu and San Francisco are therefore cancelled. The Nile will arrive in Shanghai from her last voyage across the Pacific September 28.

The China Mail steamers Nanking and China will continue the regular freight and passenger service between San Francisco and Singapore. The China is due in Shanghai from San Francisco October 9.

FRANCE MOVES TO HAVE LEAGUE PUT DOWN ARMAMENTS

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, September 2.—The French Government has submitted to the League of Nations a motion suggesting the institution of a special commission for controlling armaments. The French delegates, M. Noblemaire, has pointed out in an interview that the motion completely disposes of the suggestions that France is still permeated with militaristic ideas.

OBREGON SEEMS TO HAVE CASE OF WRITER'S CRAMP

(Reuter's Service)

Mexico City, September 3.—The representatives of American oil interests have reached an agreement with Senor de la Huerta, Minister of Finance, but it lacks President Obregon's signature. The American representatives express satisfaction with the agreement.

Foch Will Honor U.S. Soldier Who Is 'Unknown' Dead

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, September 3.—According to the program for the interment in American soil of an unknown American soldier, the warship conveying the remains from France will reach the United States on November 10, the eve of the ceremony at Arlington, at which Marshal Foch will be present.

PERSHING WILL GO

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, September 4.—According to the Matin, the United States Embassy has officially notified the French War Office that General Pershing will come to France at the beginning of October to fetch the body of "an unknown soldier," which will be transferred to the United States for burial in the Arlington National Cemetery, near Washington. General Pershing will be accompanied by an american private, who will chose the coffin. It is expected that Marshal Foch will attend the burial, which will probably be held at the end of October, with great solemnity.

Employment Suit Is Heard In U.S. Court

Case Of Miss Council Against Insurance Concern Decided In Favor Of Defendant

In the suit of Miss Martha P. Council against the American Foreign Insurance Association for transporation expenses to America a ruling was given yesterday in favor of the insurance company by U. S. Commissioner F. J. Schuhl, before whom the case was heard. Miss Council was represented in the action by Mr. James Browne and the defendant company was represented by Mr. J. B. Davies of the firm of Fleming, Davies and Bryan.

Miss Council, who was employed by the American Foreign Insurance Association up to July 28 last, alleged that at the time she was employed she was given to understand that her traveling expenses to America would be paid by her employers if she remained with them a year. Mr. A. W. Hexamer, who had been manager of the association at the time Miss Council was employed, was called as a witness but was unable fully to substantiate the claim she made.

Mr. H. A. Wiley, present manager of the association, testified that he had only been in charge since last April. On July 28 last, he said Miss Council had had trouble with a Chinese office boy and after she had made a complaint about this she became offended at the manner in which he undertook to investigate the matter and resigned without giving notice. He said that she was then paid a month's salary of $350 in advance. Concerning the contention advanced by the plaintiff that the association had paid the expenses of other employes to America when they resigned Mr. Wiley said these employes had had longer service and were brought out from America while Miss Council had been employed here.

Chinese News Notes

Mutiny on the part of the men-of-war at Fukien is feared as the pay has been in arrears for a long time. Tuchun Li Hou-chi has offered to advance $10,000 to the naval men.

General Wu Pei-fu has asked the Government to appoint General Feng Yu-hsiang to be chief commander of the expedition to Szenchuen.

The 4th National Conference of Chambers of Commerce due to be held in Hankow this month will be held in Shanghai instead.

Hsiao Yao-nan, Tuchun of Hupeh, reports that he has purchased 40,000 tons of coal from the Ching King Coal Mine Co. for the use of the men-of-war participating in the offensive campaign.

On September 2 a meeting was held at the Anhui Guild at Peking at which over 1,000 people gathered. A resolution was passed that the appointment of Li Shao-chen as the Civil Governor of Anhui should be vigorously opposed and that the nominee must be an Anhui man.

Ex-Prince Tuan was sent back to his place of exile in Sinkiang under an escort on September 2 and $2,000 was granted for the expenses of the trip. A monthly allowance of $400 will be given him during the exile.

Civil Governor Chi She-yuan has reported to the Government that the floods in Kiangsu affects more than 50 districts and asks for an appropriation of $100,000 for relief work.

A loan of $250,000 has been contracted by the Ministry of Communications with share certificates of the Lung Yen Kung Ssu (The Chefoo-Lungkow Railway Corporation) as security. The loan is furnished by the Territorial Bank.

The Ministry of Communications reminds the Ministry of War that the latter is indebted to the former for the sum of $2,000,000 for transportation of troops and military supplies, on the Peking-Mukden Railway.

On account of the various nationalities represented by diplomatic officials at Harbin, the Government intends to create the post for a Defense Commissioner at that port.

Seven questions to be brought before the Pacific Conference are being discussed: (a) The question of international control of the railways. (b) The Chinese Eastern Railway. (3) The new Banking Consortium. (4) The Foreign Post Offices in China. (5) Foreign telegraph concerns in China. (6) Rights of Navigation. (7) The Kiaochow-Tsinan Railway.

Civil Governor Wang Hu of Kiangsu reports that the Bank of Kiangsu holds German share coupons of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway and that these share scripts should be redeemed by the British shareholders with interest.

Dr. Alfred Sze has been advised by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs that in case there should be any preliminary discussion of issues concerning the Washington Conferences between Great Britain, United States and Japan, China should also be admitted to such preliminary conferences.

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation has notified the Peking Government that the sterling loan of 1908 with interest is due to be repaid this month, amounting in all to £760,000.

Warlord Chang Tso-lin urges the Government to issue the promised monthly appropriation of $400,000 for the Mongolian expedition.

Lan Tien-wei, one of the Southern commanders with 3,000 men, has captured Li Chuan.

The Government proposes to convene a meeting for the special discussion of dredging work on the Lower Reaches of the Yangtsze River. Foreign experts and representatives of the Civil Governors. Provincial Assemblies and Chambers of Commerce of the provinces concerned will be present at the conference.

Premier Chin has ordered the Wine and Tobacco Bureau that its monthly surplus of $800,000 should in future be handed over to Tuchun Hsiao Yao-nan of Hupeh for military expenses instead of paying same to the Ministry of Finance.

By a mandate issued on the 4th inst. Yen Hsiang-wen, the late Tuchun of Shensi who recently committed suicide, was created a marshal, $5,000 was awarded for funeral expenses and a record of his meritorious deeds in war should be recorded in the national history.

There is an undercurrent of friction in the Fengtien military clique and it is rumored that the Tuchunships of Kirin and Heilungkiang will be filled by two nominees of Chang Tso-lin, the men mentioned being Chang Tso-hsiang as the new Tuchun of Kirin and Chang Hsueh-liang as the new Tuchun of Heilungkiang.

Speaking at a banquet on the evening of September 3, when about 700 people gathered, consisting mostly of military officers with victories in the Kwangsi campaign and who will join the punitive expedition to the North. Dr. Wu Ting-fang said: "General Wu Pei-fu is no gentleman. He was fighting against the Peking Government at Hunan when he was backed by the finances by the Military Government with $400,000. Now he is fighting against the Southern Army with the aid of the $800,000 given him by President Hsu. His talk of a national convention is nothing but a ruse to hoodwink the people."

Dr. Alfred Sze has been instructed to pave the way for the introduction into the Washington Conferences of a measure whereby the traffic in morphia will be stopped.

Harding Rejoices Over Undefended Northern Frontier

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Washington, September 3.—In the course of a letter which was read at the centennial celebration of peace between Canada and America, President Harding pointed to the centuries of peaceful relations with the British Empire and the fact that a boundary of 3,000 miles remained unfortified, as examples which mankind yearned to follow. He expressed the belief that the time was at hand when a long step might be taken in that direction.

HELD AS PRISONER

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, September 3.—General Le Roud, the President of the Inter-Allied Control Commission in Upper Silesia, has left Paris for Oppeln.

It is reported that, as a British official of the Inter-Allied Commission was re-entering his motor-car at Oppeln on the 30th ult., he was seized by a band of armed Germans, and, together with his chauffeur, conveyed to German territory, where they were kept prisoners for 24 hours. They were liberated and returned to Oppeln on Friday.

Avalanche Due To Typhoon Brings Disaster To 30

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, September 5.—Typhoon weather, coupled with an exceptionally heavy rainfall, was responsible for the collapse of several houses, landslides and other damage in the Colony during the week-end.

The most serious collapse took place this morning when thirty Chinese were buried by the caving-in of the roof and top storeys of two houses in Queen's Road. The police are busily engaged in extricating the victims from the ruins. Several casualties in other house collapses are also reported.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy and retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."
J. E. SIMPSON, M. D.,
Chicago, Ill.

"A medicine so valuable and beneficial for children as your Castoria is deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere."
J. S. ALEXANDER, M. D.,
Omaha, Neb.

"Have used your Castoria on various occasions in suitable cases and have found it a palatable and effective laxative, especially in the various diseases of children."
CHAS. EDWARD GARDINER, M. D.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, and always obtain the desired result."
F. GERALD BLATTNER, M. D.,
Buffalo, N. Y.

"I have prescribed Castoria to families for several years. It is all right. Mothers like it, for children will take it without any trouble."
C. A. WILSON, M. D.,
St. Louis, Mo.

"Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."
J. A. BOARMAN, M. D.,
Kansas City, Mo.

Conseil D'Administration Municipale De La Concession Francaise de Changhai

MUNICIPAL LOAN OF 1921

(20,000 debentures of Tls. 100 each),

Rate of interest 8% per annum

The "Conseil d'Administration Municipale de la Concession Francaise de Changhai" hereby invite subscriptions for 20,000 debentures of Tls. 100 each, according to the resolution passed at their General Meeting on May 30, 1921.

The conditions on which the Debenture Certificates will be issued are:—

1°—The Debenture Certificates are transferable, and the person whose name is entered in the Register of Debenture Certificate or Certificates, shall alone be recognised and treated by the Council as the lawful and rightful holder and owner of such Debenture Certificate or Certificates.

2°—The loan will be redeemable at par (Tls. 100) in not less than 10 years and not more than 30 years, from 1st July, 1931 and according to the figures determinated by the Council.

3°—The loan will bear interest at 8% per annum, payable on the 30th day of June and 31st of December in each year, when interest warrants will be issued to the registered owners.

4°—The property and income of the Municipality, deducting those which serve as security provided in the Municipal Loans of 1903, 1911, 1914 and 1916 are the security for the repayment of the money advanced and for the interest thereon in the present loan.

The Members of the French Municipal Council are not personally liable in any way for the payment of either principal or interests.

5°—Applications for debentures will be received at the Secretary's Office, Rue du Consulat.

A cheque representing the amount of debentures asked for must be deposited at the same time.

6°—Applications for Debentures under par will not be recognised by the Council.

7°—For further informations, apply to Mr. P. LEGENDRE, Secretary, French Municipal Council.

NOTICE

China exports every year vast quantities of Kashmir, Thibetan wool, camel's wool, Kansu and Manchurian sheep's wool, and goat's wool. On the other hand China imports every year almost every woollen article such as woollen yarns, blankets, rugs, carpets, woollen underwear cloth, etc.

Labour is cheap in China and yet there is not one woollen mill in operation.

We have complete specifications and estimates for a woollen mill able to turn out, yarn, blankets, rugs, carpets, woollen underwear, cloth, etc. We have also an engineer on the spot. We shall be glad to give particulars to interested parties. Only those able to command or obtain the capital necessary for such an enterprise need apply to Box 687, THE CHINA PRESS.

A JAVA SECRET IN SHANGHAI
"BATIK"

For centuries the art of Batik, of painting wonderful designs on silk in unfading and waterproof colours of great beauty, has been a carefully guarded secret in certain families in the Dutch Indies. Greatly in demand in Europe, the process is especially suitable for ladies dresses, cushions, lamp-shades and handkerchiefs.

Recently brought to Shanghai, samples may now be seen by appointment at No. 1, Yu Yuen Road, and at Hall and Holtz, Squires and Ye Gift Shop.

The Chinese Political Stage

BY JOSEF W. HALL

AS predicted, Yourin, after snubs and insults at Peking and Mukden has turned to the Japanese. He came from Chita to see Chang Tso-lin regarding the Mongolian situation and resumption of untrammeled trade between Russia and Manchuria. Chang referred him to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Peking. The Ministry referred him back to the High Commissioner of Mongolia. The High Commissioner informed Yourin, the Russian envoy that, having offered his resignation to Peking, he could not negotiate. In the course of these peregrinations Yourin had his baggage rifled by agents of Chang in Peking. Naturally he left Mukden. At Dairen the Japanese received him, according him the dignity due a diplomatic official. He is now in conference with the Japanese representative, Mr. Matsushima.

The Russians would have preferred China as their friend. The Chinese officials have given them no choice.

Peking politicians, after talking the zest out of the question of representation at President Harding's Disarmament Conference, have left the matter to Minister W. W. Yen of Foreign Affairs. They still retain caution enough to leave diplomacy to those who understand it, and confine themselves to creating the situations which Minister Yen and his associates are constantly engaged in explaining away.

Canton, while discussing the matter of a delegate, woke up to the fact that it had not received an invitation. Sulkily self-important over its prestige, it has announced that it will not be bound by any decision of the Washington Conference. Too bad for the Conference!

THE CURTAIN ON TSAO KUN

Wu Pei-fu's show still runs true to advance notices. By swift and large troop movements from the north he has established a military supremacy on the Middle Yangtsze which runs little risk of being overthrown. The recalcitrant Hupeh leaders find themselves compelled to retire or submit to his headship. Sun Yat-sen has little hope of accomplishing anything in Hunan and Hupeh, and has endeavored to deal Wu Pei-fu a blow in another way by anticipating his call for a National Assembly, having sent out a summons over his own name to a convocation in Shanghai.

In Kiangsi, on the other hand, conditions are ripe for a Southern coup, and the weak Tuchun of that province, Chen, is tottering before a Southern invasion. Developments favorable to Canton are likely to take place there. With Kwangtung, Kwangsi and Kiangsi consolidated, Fukien threatened, and Lu, who controls Chekiang and Shanghai in league, the Canton leaders will have established a working-base for a pan-China campaign. It is just as certain, however, that the South can never conquer the North, and vice versa, as that one fighting puppy cannot eat the other.

Wu Pei-fu is not, however, without his troubles. Ruthless yet modern (are the terms synonymous?) military strategy, including the cutting of dykes, has given him victories in the field. He is, however, faced with a very severe financial problem. Tsao Kun has not submitted to the loss of several of his best Chihli Divisions, transferred to Hankow, without the compensative privilege of pocketing their usual military remittances. Wu Pei-fu, now a Super-tuchun himself, must look after his own little problems of this nature.

Peking inclines to be sympathetic with Wu, but has been left very few funds by Chang Tso-lin. It has taken advantage of Wu's need of funds to declare all administrative payments, such as salaries, off for the time being, and float thirty million dollars worth of tenth year domestic loan bonds. Meanwhile Wu is fighting out his problem of liquidating Wang Chan-yuan's old army and getting rid of Wang's old lieutenants.

The transfer of so many Chihli troops to the Wuhan region—battalions having been brought from as far as Suiyuan outside the great wall (through arrangement with Ma Fu-hsiang)—is causing a complete military realignment in North China which has great bearing on future internal political developments. Tsao Kun, who seems to be heading for a financial "cleanup" and retirement, is surely and rapidly being eliminated as a military factor. The pick and bulk of his troops have followed Wu Pei-fu to Hankow. Wu Pei-fu himself has always been the bulwark of Tsao's military strength. Tsao has never at any time shown himself other than vacillating in face of a military showdown.

Taking advantage of the ungarrisoned condition of Chihli and other provinces south of the Great Wall, Chang Tso-lin who, it appears, is far from eliminated from politics in China proper, is pouring Fengtien soldiers and equipment as far south as Shuntehfu and the Honan border. These troops are falling heir to the garrisons vacated by the men who have followed Wu.

It looks as if the result of the entire Wuhan affair would be the addition of Tsao Kun's sphere of influence to his own on the part of Chang Tso-lin, and establishment of Wu Pei-fu on the Middle Yangtsze as the great rival of the Mukden chief. It is interesting to speculate upon the part which Canton will play in regard to the relations between these two military men, so opposed in policies and declared aims. It is easy to believe, however, that Wu, if compelled to make the choice, would prefer Sun Wen to Chang Tso-lin as ally.

Center of the Universe

BY S. E. KISER

"Paree, she ees ze gr-r-rand centaire
Of ever-ry-sing!" says Paul Poiret;
He starts the women's fashions there,
And has no wish to move away.
Paul pities those who dwell outside
The limits of "that dear Paree";
There all things lovely are supplied;
It's Pleasure's capital, says he.

Old Angelo, whose little hut
Is near the Coliseum's wall,
Has heard of other cities, but
His own's the greatest of them all,
To him it seems that all mankind
Must envy him who lives in Rome;
He's old and very poor and blind—
But yonder looms St. Peter's dome!

One day I waited for a train
At Turkey Center. I should guess
That all the people there remain
Because they like it, more or less.
A man with whiskers, who came down
To see the train arrive, allowed
That living in so fine a town
As Turkey Center made him proud.

If Paul Poiret loves gay Paree,
And thinks that all things center there,
The reason is not hard to see,
For local pride is everywhere.
John Smith, who lives at Saugatuck,
Thinks any man must be a fool
Who leaves that town to try his luck
In Paris or East Liverpool.

("Austin Chamberlain, the leader of the House of Commons, has all the physical attributes of his famous father, the late Joseph Chamberlain, but he will never attain the same greatness."—Vide Press.)

With an orchid in me buttonhole,
A window in me eye,
To look like my late father
Conscientiously I try:
I haven't got the brains of him,
I haven't got the nous
But all the same today I am
The Leader of the House!

Very much safer, we should aver.

PLAYING FOR SAFETY

Paddy O'Leary was very much excited. He was on the local racecourse, and the great race of the day was being run.

"Lind me your glasses," he said to one of his neighbors. He scanned the course.

"Be jabers," he exclaimed, "see my horse! He's a beauty! He's drivin' the whole lot before him. Luk at him, the chap wid the yellow jacket."

His neighbor, taking the glasses said: "Why, your horse is last of all!"

"It doesn't matter," replied Paddy triumphantly. "Begorra, I've a bob on him both ways."

WORSE THAN A LONG TOT!

If a Hottentot taught a Hottentot
To talk ere the tot could totter,
Ought the Hottentot tot
To be taught to say "aught"
Or "nought" or what ought to be taught her?

If to hoot and toot a Hottentot tot
Be taught by a Hottentot tooter,
Should the tooter be hot
If the Hottentot
Hoot and toot at the Hottentot tutor?"

A BURNING SHAME

(A good deal of heated correspondence has lately appeared in the papers in England about the scantiness of the dress that enfolds feminine charms.)

The parson remarks, in the streets and the parks,
That the nature of feminine fashions
Would appear to be made, they are sorely afraid,
Into "Fuel to stoke up the passions."

A gossamer blouse will his anger arouse;
Oh! he thinks it is perfectly shocking!
And his wrath knows no bounds when he sees, in his rounds,
Such a lavish display of silk stocking!

And the quakerisk cleric's pedantic hysterics
Lead him to remark that he'd "learn 'em;"
For complete satisfaction he'd use "direct action"—
He'd collect all those garments—and burn 'em!

All this feminine aid to enchantment he'd raid,
And bundle 'em off, willy-nilly,
And set 'em alight in the dead of the night
On big bonfires all down Piccadilly!

But I really don't see of what use it would be,
For their owners would soon cease to sorrow;
For the "Sales" are now on at Whiteaway's hong.
And they'd buy a new outfit tomorrow!

What Do Boys Know?

(New York Times)

When Mr. Alfred G. Rolfe asks this question in The Atlantic Monthly, the reader knows that the ignorance of our youngsters and the sins of parents and teachers are to be held up to reprobation once more. The author is master in a large preparatory school for boys. For years he has made out "information tests," each containing a list of a hundred questions, and presupposing "on the part of the pupil a bowing acquaintance with the masterpieces of English literature, some knowledge of the political doings of the day at home and abroad and a smattering of what is politely but vaguely styled 'general information,' which comes from the habit of keeping open the eyes and the ears." The boys examined are from 12 to 19, most of them guilty of being the sons of rich parents. Many have traveled. Not a few have moved in "the society of refined and cultured persons." Finally, what is most remarkable in what we are sure is going to be a chapter of illiteracy, great interest is taken by the boys in these examinations. Books are the prizes; and the winners "receive from their fellows plaudits not usually given in this day and generation to those whose wits are nimbler than their heels."

Ah, strangest of schools, not Utopia, but Eutopia! As usual, "the average boy's ignorance of literature, especially of the Bible, is profound, not to say abysmal." So is the average man's. In these days, how many educated men know the Bible so that their speech is full of quotations or reminiscences of it, as the speech of the Scotch and the New Englanders used to be? One of Mr. Rolfe's boys committed a delightful "howler." His version of the Third Commandment was: "Thou shalt not commit Deuteronomy," "Moses, the Baptist," Noah, and "all the prophets, major and minor," were named in answering the question, "Who led the children of Israel into the Promised Land?" Perhaps the ignorance of the questioned was less than the answer disclosed. It is mightly hard for boys, at least for many boys, to keep their wits together when an examination paper stares them out of countenance. Frankly, most of us, no matter how elaborately "educated," will flunk on almost any set of questions, whether drawn up by Mr. Edison or Mr. Rolfe or any other persecutor.

Of course, the boys are mostly ignorant of "the great English masterpieces." So are most other folks. Every one of Mr. Rolfe's boys "has a few favorite authors whom he holds responsible for all that has been written in prose or verse since Shakespeare's day. Longfellow heads the list, with Tennyson and Kipling following closely." Well, it is good to know that Longfellow and Tennyson find a refuge in the schoolroom. Boys are always conservative. The boys knock geography into flinders. What of it? Mr. Rolfe explains the matter; everybody even a little familiar with the schoolboys and undergraduates of today knows that the explanation is correct:

"These are out-of-doors boys, living in a world of motor cars, airplanes and wireless. Many a boy who could not for his life name member of Mr. Harding's Cabinet can, by the sound of the engine, spot every motor car made in this country, improvise an aerial from the springs of his bed or draw a model of a gasoline engine that would do credit to a mechanical engineer."

Non omnes omnia! These fellows know as much as their questioners, only they know different things. Philistines, if you want to be snobbish enough to say so; but you would be wiser to hold your peace. The next generation must be better than this. Otherwise there is no progress, and Dean Inge is right.

Avoidance Of Detail

A clear distinction between what constitutes success or failure as the head of a business was drawn by A. H. Deute, General Sales Manager of the Bordon Company, in a recent address before the Baltimore Ad Club. His particular topic was the financial phase of sales management, and he described other duties besides selling which should engage the attention of the sales executive. On the detail of successful management, he said:

"Let me say that the difference between a successful head of a company and an unsuccessful head is largely in the way that the former can get out of the detail workings and the latter insists upon getting into them. It takes a much bigger man to stay out and hold a department head responsible than it does to get his own hand in. The man who can stay out and let the machine function is the man who is big and strong enough and has enough confidence to pick men and, having picked them, to trust his judgment and let his department heads play their part in the game."

"COMMANDER" Stories
(Admiral Sir Edward H. Seymour)

In 1860 I joined the Chesapeake, a frigate.

We left Hongkong and went to Tah-lien-wan Bay.

This place is an inlet of Korea Bay, but is now much better known as Dalny.

Our Admiral sent the gunboats to examine the coasts near, and the Algerine, commanded by Lieutenant W. Arthur, returned with the news that she had found a very good harbour; which the Admiral named Port Arthur after it's, so to speak, discoverer.

'IRemember!'

BY LLEWELLYN BRONSON

I remember, I remember
The clothes they used to wear.
We always used to give a look—
To-day we give a stare!
Then the handiwork of Nature
Was meagerly disclosed,
And the girls seemed more attractive
With a little less exposed!

I remember, I remember
The way they used to dress;
They always kept us guessing—
We always loved to guess!
I never saw much silken hose
Or exposed vertebrae;
A pair of ankles gave us thrills
That lasted through the day!

I remember, I remember
Those lengthy skirts of yore;
If they reached above the shoetops
Ma-ma put up a roar!
"Pull down your skirts at once, my dear!"
Became a constant wheeze.
No one admitted then that girls
Possessed such things as knees!

I remember, I remember
Back not so many years,
When only freaks would bob their hair
And girls exposed their ears!
The styles have changed since then, alas!
And modesty has died;
Today their shrinking little ears
Are all they seem to hide!

Wonderful Imagination

A lawyer was engaged as counsel for the defense in a murder case. No evidence was submitted for the prisoner, and, believing that the case was won, the prosecuting counsel made only a few remarks in conclusion.

Then the lawyer for the other side began in a quiet, conversational tone. No reference was made to the murder, but he drew a vivid picture of a pretty country cottage, a loving wife preparing supper, and three ruddy-faced youngsters walking up the road to meet father coming home.

Suddenly the speaker stopped. Drawing himself up to his full height, he exclaimed, "Gentlemen, you must send him home to them!"

A roar of applause followed, and one juror blurted out: "We'll do it, sir; we'll do it!"

The jury brought in a verdict of "Not guilty," and the prisoner, with tears streaming down his cheeks, wrung his counsel's hands. But between his sobs he managed to say: "No other man could have done that. Why, sir, I'm not even married!"

TEXACO MOTOR OILS

—SAVE { POWER / THE ENGINE / EXPENSE

There are four grades of Texaco Motor Oil; light, medium, heavy and extra heavy—a grade to suit your every requirement, no matter what kind of car you drive.

Texaco Motor Oil assures maximum power because it holds the "seal" between piston rings and cylinder walls. That is where fuel leakage occurs when the lubricant does not possess body to function properly.

Texaco Motor Oils are composed of the best American Crudes, refined according to most scientific methods, and each tin is tested before it leaves the refinery. Use of it affords free lubrication to all moving parts of the motor, more power, high compression, and less carbon. The little carbon which does remain is never hard and flinty, but soft and fluffy like soot.

Texaco Motor Oil is a quality product, each drop is the same—maximum lubrication value, minimum waste.

"PECK'S BAD GIRL" is a whole show in itself. It's circus, hippodrome, comedy, drama and melodrama all thrown into one big plot, boiled down, stirred round and served a la carte.
It's a broad comedy, alright; the kind of stuff all you have been waiting for.
It will drive right home to every member of the family, from the little freckled-face Willie to dignified Aunt Priscilla, who as a rule doesn't care much for the movies.

HOW TO TELL WHEN YOU ARE IN LOVE
1. Find some excuse to hold the man's hand (Physical Contact is necessary.)
2. Then note:—
a. If your pulse beats faster.
b. If your heart throbs harder.
c. If you blush.

If none of these symptoms appear, he is NOT the man.
